

Busselton H3 mens luncheon Friday 3rd May 2019

Update number 1: date correction and cost.

So what has changed in this update? Well read on and see....

The brain cells may be starting to come back to life, so time to send them into pointless and irrelevant spin again! We have been busy planning (well not really but sounds good) and we think that we have a deal happening!

Where: We have a venue that is locked in, close by and has some privacy, for more details WAIT TILL WE TELL

YOU! And we have a caterer too!

When: Friday 3 May 2019 1.00pm (run starts at this time, venue arrival at 1230ish). Ends 1600 sharp!

Registering for this earth shattering event will begin NOW. We will provide rego form to Nash Hash organisers along with this flyer, somewhat improved, updates as necessary, secrecy as we want and total deniability the whole way.

If you wanna register your interest early (42 already) you can send emails to: chainsaw@bigpond.net.au.

Details you need to send are real name, hashname, email, contact number

We have a cap on numbers so get in quick (max 80), first in gets a spot.

How: How else, we start, we get somewhere, we drink, eat, get served by service wenches, then we finish.

Cost: We have tied it down to $90 per hashMAN.

What: Well the usual, run (sorta), some shots of something that we think of at the time, beers, food, hostesses with no morals but pleasing manners, genuine hash merriment, did I mention beer, seclusion from the public, beer, lies, bullshit and general story telling. And a shirt (yes but not at expense of wenches).

Why: If you need to ask then you need to come along and find out.

Best of all, the only guaranteed Harriette free event for Nash Hash (in as politically incorrect terms as we dare).

So who is making this happen?

Well we wondered that too, so Tinky will be at his Teletubby best,

Friar, Friar's gimp Chainsaw and Brokeback and crew. Who will be responsible, well we were kinda hoping no-one but a job's there of some fool wants it!
